tion to customer service extending beyond completion of the job, Rose Paving is clearly exceeding client expectations. Led by partners, Alan Rose, president and founder, and C.B. Kuzlik, vice president and co-owner, Rose Paving continues to set industry standards through their innovative business model as a national service provider. Small business units (SBUs), each with specially trained professionals to handle separate phases within a project, ensure the highest level of service on every aspect of every project. In addition, the company adheres to a one-of-a-kind 20-point quality assurance program to verify clients' complete satisfaction. Retail facility managers benefit with personal attention, huge time savings on the job, consistent communication with one source, and, ultimately, peace of mind.

C.B. Kuzlik, Rose Paving Co., accepts the award at the Retail Construction Expo in Atlanta.
